2. 14-0235 – Ptlr. Jeff Johnston (10 Patrol credits YTD)
3. 15-0238 – Ptlr. Kyle Wong (22 Patrol credits YTD)

CONDITIONS:

Clear visibility, slightly breezy, 14 degrees Celsius=58 Fahrenheit.

NOTABLE INCIDENTS:

- 23:30 HRS 4000 block 18th Street – Posted No Trespass (MPC-25): No trespassing sign posted. Two WMAs, one sleeping, the other digging through trash. We brought to their attention the current no trespassing sign and advised them that they could not be there. They began to get up and get their things together and complied.

- 23:31 HRS 4000 block 18th Street – Missing Person (809): A guy walked up to us to explain that he was looking for his missing girlfriend. She came to SF to party with her gay friend. Her phone died and apparently when she gets drunk, she tends to wonder off and this time got totally separated from her friend and lost. He said that she had been missing for about 3 hours at that point. We had him send a photo of her and her gay friend to us so that we could keep an eye out and also show the bouncers at all the bars we passed.
- 23:38 HRS 4000 block 18th street – Graffiti (595): Two sightings of graffiti of the tag "Cryst" on an ATM and the side of a building. Reported to 311, ticket id #459543 and 4595737.
- 00:15 HRS Castro MUNI Station – Trespass (601): WMA sleeping on bench. Red jacket, blue jeans, white converse shoes, black hoodie, black socks. Muni attendant, Dana, asked us to confront the disheveled sleeping man not seeming to be headed anywhere in particular. We woke him up, though it was tough doing so, and told him that he would have to board a train if he was going somewhere or exit the station since closing time was approaching. He said he had been waiting but his train hasn't showed so we waited a minute and a T line pulled up. He couldn't dispute that it wasn't his train because the T goes everywhere the others go plus further. So we watched and waited until he was on the train (one shoe on and the other off) and waved goodbye.
- 00:33 to 00:40 HRS 2300 block Market street – Parking Violations (587): We spent some time moving cars that were Uber or Lyft or Taxis along and keeping them from stopping in the middle of the street and from staying too long in the bike lane waiting for passengers and also talking to people J-walking from across the street.
- 00:45 HRS 2300 block Market Street – Disabled Space Parking Violation (587): A white Toyota Yaris 2-door Lic# [REDACTED] with a dog in the car was parked in the handicap space with no visible sign of a handicap placard or sticker. As we were about to report it on the 311-mobile app, a lady came up. We asked her if it was her car and told her that she couldn't park in the handicap parking. She confirmed it was her car and said that she was just picking up food and no one has tried to park there while she's been away. We explained that of course no one tried to park there because her car was in the spot. We asked her to move it and she complied.
- 00:52 HRS 400 block Castro Street – Amplified Sound (43): 1 Male adult of darker complexion carrying a speaker or amp playing music. The music was pretty loud but there is also no amplified sound allowed past 10pm. He started in Jane Warner Plaza and walked away when he saw us. We caught up to him and asked him to turn off the music because there is no amplified sound allowed past 10pm. He refused to turn the music off and we stood with him and called the 10-B officer over to further assess the situation. As we waited, the gentleman, who was short with short black hair, wearing native american garb, tan khaki pants and skater shoes, holding his amp in one hand and his skateboard in the other, decided to turn the music volume down a little. He asked if that was good enough and we told him that it had to be off. So he finally turned it off, probably in anticipation of the officer arriving, and we all continued to stand there. We wanted to make sure he wasn't going to turn it back on so he asked if he we were keeping him there and we said we weren't detaining him and he is free to walk away. As he headed back up to Jane Warner plaza, we followed him and just as we were coming up to the Chevron station we caught sight of the 10-B officer and the guy rode away on his skateboard on the sidewalk.

- 01:12 HRS 2300 block Market Street – Assault/Battery (240): We responded to a fight reported. When we got there, the 10-B officer was standing over a guy face down on the ground in handcuffs and there was another guy kneeling nearby with blood all over his face. The guy kneeling was wearing tan pants, with a button up blue shirt. The guy in handcuffs was wearing a crooks & castle black shirt, tan pants, earring in his left ear, silver necklace and a short lined up hair cut. No charges were pressed, an ambulance was called for the victim, and the suspect was released and told to walk east on market and to leave the area immediately. 20 minutes later at 01:40 we observed the same subject walking through the Castro again and we reminded him that he was suppose to leave the area immediately. We tried both to radio and phone the 10-B officer but no response. We continued to follow the subject and he continued to ignore us and our warnings. His friend kept making up excuses for his still being in the Castro. We called patrol special and followed him up to chevron where the 10-B officer and patrol special all came together and were about to say something to him when the subject finally got into someone's car and drove off.
- 02:23 HRS 500 block Castro Street – Amplified Sound (43): Group of 3 people playing acoustic music and singing pretty loudly. We asked them to stop as it was probably too loud for the people living above. Two immediately complied with no problem, but one WMA of the group began to question our asking them to stop and became very verbally aggressive and started calling us names and cursing at us. We tried to calm him down and said we weren't trying to be rude to their group but that it was a misunderstanding or miscommunication. The 10-B officer happened to walk up and heard all of the yelling so he took over the conversation and calmed the guy down. WMA wore glasses, blue t-shirt with a green jacket over and blue jeans.

- 02:28 HRS 500 block Castro Street – Well Being Check (910): Well-being check on a skinny WMA sleeping in the doorway in a sleeping bag and with a backpack. We initially asked if he was okay and if he needed us to call any support for him, then realized there was a no trespass sign in the window and asked him to move along.
- 02:36 HRS Walgreens parking lot – Loitering (): WMA sleeping in the no park zone of the parking lot with a bunch of stuff and 2 backpack/bags. We told him the parking lot had a no loitering law and he would have to move his stuff. Unhappily he got up and tossed his stuff to the sidewalk while bad mouthing us. He complied with our request so we let him be.
- 02:40 HRS 4100 block 18th Street – Well Being Check (910): A WMA was passed out sleeping in the corner in front of the door of Not Just Flowers. He was wearing a red/orange sweater, dark cargo pants, and he had a backpack. We woke him up and told him that because of the no trespassing sign, he would have to move from the private steps of the business and find another place to sleep.
- 03:11 HRS 200 block Collingwood – Fight/Dispute (418): As we about to go off duty we heard a police call, priority B, to Collingwood Street for a fight. Since it was so close, we decided to go check it out. When we got to Collingwood and 19th, we split up, east and west side of the street, and search for any trouble or possible anyone hiding in dark places or in between cars. When we got to the location there was one WMA waiting with an ice pack in his hand. He confirmed that he was the one who called the cops and we told him that we weren't cops but we heard the call and came to check it out to make sure everything was under control. We waited nearly an hour with him and called dispatch twice to check the status of the priority B call. Eventually around 04:00, we asked him if he would feel safe in his room and if he had a secure lock. We said that once the cops do finally arrive, that they would call him and he would have to answer or they would just leave. We also told him that if he was feeling sleepy or planning on sleeping instead of waiting, to call in and cancel the call before they arrived. We left him and headed back down towards 19th and Diamond.
- 04:07 HRS 4200 Block 19th Street – Suspicious Person (917): When departing, we noticed a suspicious person walking east on 19th street from Eureka towards Diamond. A young BMA, skinny, dark pants and dark shirt on with a backpack. He stopped when he saw me to adjust his backpack and then pulled a cigarette and a lighter out. It was a little suspicious for someone to be walking around at 4am not seeming to be headed anywhere in particular. After getting in my car and notifying Brian, we tried to catch up with the guy to question him but he just vanished. Me coming from Eureka and 19th and Brian from Diamond and 19th we lost sight of him thinking that he may have been trying to elude us. In the process of looking for him, we sighted another person darting out of the staircase and plastic sheeting of a house undergoing some sort of construction. We stopped him and informed him that we were the neighborhood watch and that he was being watched. He was fine with that and went on his way.

04:10 HRS End of Patrol
