- 23:15 HRS, 3985 17th St (Hearth) between Castro and Hartford, trespass (MPC 25): Couple bedded down in doorway. Current sign posted. Advised to move on. WMA said they would comply. A few minutes later other half of couple, possible WFA, introduced herself as Tiffany and stated that she sleeps there every night. When Ptlr. Fullagar pointed out that she was not there the previous Friday night, she stated that she "must have been at the club or something." She then stated that she has an understanding with Hearth and Patrol Special. Upon our query, Patrol Special stated that this is not the case, and he would respond.
- 23:17 HRS, Jane Warner Plaza, smoking (HS 104495): Smoker advised. Complied.
- 23:29 HRS, 470 Castro, public consumption of alcohol: Group of 12-15 young adults, mixed gender and race, sitting on sidewalk singing with (one) ukulele. One was drinking 40 oz. beer. Advised, beer disposed of.

- 23:50 HRS, NE corner Diamond St & 19th St (by ball field,) Welfare check: MA in sleeping bag next to fence. Awakened, and was then responsive and declined assistance. (Same individual as previous week.)
- 23:55 HRS, Diamond St JNO 19th St (by ballfield,) possible found property: WMA asked who we were and, upon hearing Castro Patrol, stated that he found one of our cameras in his store. He identified himself (verbally, no documentation) as a "federal operative," supervising "12-15 agents." He offered to go get the camera from the store but Chief Carey (who has spoken with this individual previously) declined the offer as we were not missing any.
- 23:56 HRS, 4316 19th St, welfare check: WMA sitting on steps of residence (down from sidewalk, to service alley or rear unit,) feet bare, boots and socks sitting on step beside him. Although sitting upright, he was barely responsive at first, only turning his head or responding audibly (though not intelligibly) after repeated attempts to get a response from him. A call to Patrol Special asking whereabouts of 10b officer resulted in both Patrol Special and 10b responding. Asked by the 10b if he had ID, the individual responded that it was in his bag, which he believed to be nearby.

Team searched the immediate area (street to front of houses, two houses to either side) and found no bag. Interview with neighbor revealed that the subject does not live at that address, but may have some connection with occupants of lower unit. Ambulance requested by 10b, who also dismissed Team.

- 00:05 HRS, END OF PATROL
